From the Detroit Free Press. After supper, and about half an hour before sundown, certain villagers began to gather on the tavern steps. The wagon-maker, the blacksmith, the signpainter, the borse doctor and others can enerally be found in the crowd, chairs ilted back and pipes or cigars alight, but the convention does not proceed to business until a certain arrival. This "certain arrival" is a fat, stout man, with a fatherly countenance, and his clothes average a little better than the others. Every evening in Summer he is to be found on the steps, and every evening in Winter he has a chair by the big stove inside. He is the man who month.' As soon as the fat man gets settled back in his chair there is a general hitching around so as to face him, and to be ready to agree with his statements. If he says it looks like rain every head. nods an affirmative; if he predicts short crops every man on the steps is ready to back him.

"Why, sir," whispers the hostler again, "that 'ere man can quote more Bible than all the preachers I ever We hain't got a man here that heard. would dare tackle him nohow on sacred paragraphs. And he's traveled clear to Missouri one way, and as far as Canada the other."

The fat man now gots warmed up to his work a little. Referring to the last Fourth of July oration, he tenderly selects a dozen or lifteen bad mistakes made by the orator as points to prove that oratory is not a trade. "Oh! if I could only spit out the oratory he can, sighs the hostler as his eyes lose sight of the big man for a moment. "Why, sir, if I could stand under a shed and tell about 1776 the way he can, I wouldn't take a back scat for even the man who shoots off the fireworks.' The fat man here incidentally refers to the proposed Christopher Columbus monument in America, and rather carries the idea that the town would be expected to subscribe liberally. "Ah! that's another of his curious raits," whispered the hostler, as he feels for his empty wallet. "That 'ere man wouldn't low one of us to subscribe one single dollar for that 'ere monument. No, sir. He means to pay for the hull durned thing out of his pocket! That's the kind of a fence-picket he is, sir, and why in thunder this 'ere country don't git right down on her marrow-bones and beg of him to run her for a couple of terms is more'n l kin see through. I don't say nothin fur myself, 'cause I expect to allers be a hostler, but I tell ye it's awful tuff to see a man like him dumped down into a town like this, where even the manwho has a mortgage on the church don't purtend to know why it is that a hand-organ knocks all the pianers in town for music that melts the soul!"

OCCATUR, ILLINOIS. SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 23, 1879.

Accompled to the New York Times Cyfal W. Field has "shook" Mr. Tilden, and says that "nothing under heaven would tempt him ever to have any more dealings that he sage of Gramercy Park.

THE New York Sun thinks it worth while to remind some of its readers that the cable quotations of the price of wheat in Liverpool are so much per cental, or 100 pounds, and not so much per ushel. In ignorance of this fact a willer in the Philadelphia Press figured at a profit of 96 cents per bashel experting it to England, supposing the Linespool quotations of 9s 3d to be equivalent to $2.22 per bushel, whereas it ju anly about $1.33 per bushel.

THE New York Tribune is of the opinion that the political contest of this fail, whether they turn upon financial issues or not will depend at last upon the question so tersely stated by the late Cenator Morton, and afterward by States a nation or a league? The financial igsues, when closely studied, dura ha his pupon the desire of the peo-ple of manatain the power and the credit of al destral nationality. And the opinion is a correct one.

THE New York Tribune has a "painparty in that State."

One section headed by the limberjawed Springer, is trying to fix matters so as to insure a Tilden delegation to the National Convention next year. e other section looks upon David hade as the man who can turn the scales in favor of the Democratic party. Springer can get around so lively he be a terrible trial to Davis. If out, he would do himself and the country's great service.

CAPT. Dixon, the victim of the bulldentis in Yanos county, may have been a bad man in the past. But it is well to bear in mind that he wasn't killed on account of his badness. He was for office.

THE "Convention Democrats" of Yazoo are now trying to make it appear that Henry M. Dixon was a double-dyed villain because he dated to run as an independent Democratic candidate for sheriff. A few years ago this same Dixon was one of the most active leadand shot colored Republicans for at- duchess. tempting to vote the Republican ticket, and his fellow-bull-dozers were so they gave him a massive silver pitcher, bearing the following significant inscrip-

Uncle Billy Young, "the hero of three wars," is attending the great soldiers reunion at Aurora. The special correspondent of the Tribine says:

Among the spectators about the camp is an old gentleman by the name of William Young, of Decatur. Ill. He fought in the war of 1812, the Mexican War, and the Rebellion, is now eighty years of age, was a prominent figure at the Centennial, and received a special invitation to attend the reunion. In spite of his age, he walks off at a surprisingly brisk gate, particularly when following a band of music. A good story-teller, with a rich fund of narrative to fall back upon, he is in general demand about the camp fires, and "lives his battles o'er again" to his own evidently great delight and that of his

Dr. Minor, the family physician of Mrs. A. T. Stewart, denies that she had been deceived in regard to the recovery of the body of her husband, by Judge Hilton, as some newspapers have recently asserted.

Lord Dufferin, the former Governor Senator Chandler: Is the United General of Canada, has proved to be such a skillful diplomatist that he is to be removed from St. Petersburg to Constantinople. Thence to the vice-regal palaces of India is but a step.

He will be accompanied by Special Agent Harrison as assistant.

The widely circulated Gartenlaube of Leipsic, Germany, describes what it calls "surprising parties" : "After having had their fill of enjoyment, the company take their departure as suddenly and quickly as they arrived, after having turned the whole house topsy Davis could only get him where he having turned the whole house topsy could sit down on him and flatten him turry. To leave everything in the directest confusion is considered indispensable." A family that has a large acquaintance, says the Gartenlaube, may be visited in one evening by two or three of these remarkable "surprising parties.

Thus is described the Archduchess Christine of Austria, who is selected to killed because he had the temerity to be the future Queen of Spain: She is beert his rights as an American citizen 21 years of age. For her religious duties the Archduchess has an income of $10,000 a year. To be an Abbess of the Chapter of Prague ers of the bull dozers who intimidated it is necessary first to be born an Arch-

That boy-murderer, Jesse Pomercy, in the Massachusetts State Prison, is a pleased with his skill and industry that perpetual source not only of newspaper paragraphs, but of anxiety on the part of his keepers. When all the prisoners were removed from the old prison to the new one, a camp-folding chair, which had belonged to Jesse was left behind. A subsequent accidental examination of this disclosed the fact that a stone outter's steel chisel, ten inches long and weighing nearly two pounds, was concealed neatly in one of the arms, which had been hollowed out to receive it enving only the bare shell of the wood If the chair had been sent to Concord and placed in Pomeroy's cell, it is the opinion of experts that in an hour's time he would have regained his liberty.

Of ex-Governor E. D. Morgan's start in business, a correspondent of the Springfield Republican'says that while a clerk for his uncle, Nathan Morgan, a wholesale grocer in Hartford, he was sent to New York to buy corn. On his return he showed his uncle samples of the corn he had bought, and said that | ted Judge Chisolm, because of his Re as the price was comparatively small he had bought "three cargoes." those days that was considered a very large quantity of grain, and Uncle Nathan in despair declared he was rained. "Very well," said young Morgan, after listening awhile to the lamentations, "you needn't father the transaction if you don't want to, for I have already sold two cargoes of it at a handsome profit." The storm cleared off then and the uncle became all rainbow and aunshine. The next morning young E. D. Morgan, the clerk, was called into the counting-room and informed that the MR. EDITORS. A QUARTER OF A MILLION JEWS.

and Not a Magie Pauper Among The Whole

From the Philadelphia Record. For nearly four years past Mr. Wm. R. Hackenburg, of this city, one of the most prominent Hebrews of this country, has been engaged in the preparation of a statistical record of Jews and Judaism in the United States. This work, which is intended to form a permanent record of American Israelites, is approaching completion, and will shortly be in the printer's hands. Not one of the least of the discoveries made is that there is not believed to be a pauper Jew in the United States .-Every Hebrew who is able to work finds something for his or her hands to do, while the sick and infirm are abundantly cared for by the local societies. A Jew is never permitted to seek assistance in sickness from any denomina

It is calculated that there are now fully a quarter of a million Jews scattered over the United States. They have fourteen public institutions under their exclusive control, although some of these are not sectarian in their benefits. There are fifteen newspapers and magazines devoted to the cause of Judaism and published and edited by the Jews. They have four Jewish orders, all secret societies, having for their object the advancement of Judaism, the mutual assistance of their members and general charitable objects. The value of property of all kinds owned by congregations is valued at upwards of $5,000,000. The oldest synagogue in the country is that af Shearith Israel, of New York, which was established prior tion or charity outside of his own faith.

In the Santa Fe New Medican of the 16th we find the following, which will be gratifying to the many old friends of Gen. Smith in this part of the country:

THE Yazoo Valley Flag observes that the political canvass in Sunflower county is "taking a form we very much regret. Sheriff S. L. Richardson is charged with drawing the color line to array negroes in favor of his reelection, and declaring himself a candidate independent of the Democratic organization." The next news from Sunflower county will probably be that somebody has killed Sheriff S. L. Richardson, merely to give expression to the "deep regret" which his political conduct has caused.

The Wheat King of the Northwest

Oliver Dalrymple, the wheat king, lives at Fargo, D. T. He may be seen anywhere and everywhere on his mammoth estates throughout the day. Afoot, on horseback or in carriage, he is always on hand to look after his own and his partner's interests, and every detail of the great business seems to him familiar. He is a tall, thin, pleasant looking gentleman, of about 45 years of age, and though he would not be picked out in an assemblage as a great man, any one who visits the Dalrymple farms, in the Red River valley, wheat fields at home, cannot but come away enthusiastic in praise of an executive ability which may well be compared to that of the manager of a great military campaign.

An important event will take place in next, which will attract the attention dozers who, a year or two ago, assassinapublicanism, and who shot down his heroic daughter while trying to save him from the bullets of the ruffian gang Mrs. Chisolm, the widow, who at present resides at Washington, is now on her way to the scene of the trial, to appear as a witness against her husband'. cowardly assassins. She will be accompanied by Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, of New York, as legal counsel. It remains to be seen whether the courts of that State will have the courage and the justice to convict and punish murderers, when the crime consists of shooting down men whose only offending is their refusal to join and vote with a certain political party. It also remains to be seen whether Mrs. Chisolm and her attorney will be accorded decent treatment at the hands of the Mississippi "chiv-

GREAT FIRE AT FARMER CITY.

Veterans.

Rev. N. P. Heath Dying.

Aubora, Ill., Aug. 22.—It is estimated that nearly 40,000 people are in Aurora to-day, witnessing the scenes attending the grand reunion of war veterans. Every train to-day has been crowded, and the artillery and band music have rendered the city a complete camp. Decorations are more lavishly distributed than ever.

Among the arrivals to-day were Lieut Gen. Phil. Sheridan, whose coming created great enthusiasm, and who was escorted to quarters by a force of 600 men, with martial music and flying colors, and welcomed to Camp Dick Yates, ex-Mayor Heath, State's Attorney Miller, State Treasurer Smith, and Gen. S. A. Hurlbut.

To avert any accident at the sham battle this afternoon, positive orders were issued that a safe plan of firing and charging be followed.

The great event of the meeting was the storming this afternoon of the socalled "Rebel Fort Wade," over which the confederate emblem has been waving for three days. Gen. T. J. Henderson commanded, and made a gallant deby Gens. Mann, Swain, Hilliard and Torrence, with five pieces of heavy ordnance. Gen. Mann ordered a general advance at 4 p. m., and under cover of an artillery fire Generals Torrence

They were temporarily repulsed, but being reinforced by other divisions made a grand rally and attack which carried the fort with a rush. The whole affair was most successfully carried out, and afforded great entertainment to the thousands of spectators who were espectally interested from knowing that many of these veterans had seen service at march to the sea.

St. Louis, Aug. 22.—A very strong disposition to atrike for higher wages manifested itself among the mechanics and some classes of laborers here during the past few weeks. The coopers' strike of more than a month ago is not yet are ranged, several bosses still holding against the demands of the men. The lumber teamsters' strike did not amount to anything worthy of notice, but the action of the eigar makers two or three days ago has become so general that nearly all members of that craft have stopped work, and quite a number of manufacturers have agreed to pay the advance asked. Yesterday there was a movement among stove moulders for an increase of fifteen per cent. on piece work, and the restoration of what they call board prices. This has been refused by most of the foundry proprietors, and nearly all the stove moulders in the city stopped work to-day. The street car conductors and drivers have now got the fever to some extent, but they have determined upon no plan of action as yet. They do not want more pay, but a less number of working hours. They now average about fifteen hours.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.-The United States Consul at Quebec says that $5,-500,000 capital has been wholly wiped out by the failure of the Consolidated and sees the monarch of the American Exchange and Ville Marie banks, beeides a loss to the dennsitors and hillholders of about half'a million more: but worse than all is the condition of the working classes. During the past winter there was acarcely any employment, and it is estimated that there are not less than 7,000 workingmen at pre-Kemper county, Mississippi, week after sent out of employment in Quebec and its suburbs. Controversies about the of the entire country. The occasion distribution of the small amount of work will be the trial of the political bull-15th. It is entirely a question of bread, and, as a repression does not feed the hungry, the situation is anything

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 22.—Shaw & Dunham, of Logan county, and about one hundred other creditors of the Illinois Midland Railroad, to-day filed a bill for their relief in the United States Court. They allege various fraudulent transactions between Hervey, the President of the company, and Waring Brothers, of London, the princinal bondholders. They also allege that Waring Brothers illegally hold $6,-600,000 worth of bonds of the road. A rule was entered requiring the defendants to answer.

LL accounts agree that there has been an unusual demand for cheaply made or shody A boots or shoes. It is a very short-sighted policy to buy or sell such stuff. In using these goods you pay out twice as much money in a year for your loots and shoes, and you never have a pair that fits, because manufacturers of the cheap grades give no attention to the dior their work. We trust that people who buy shoddy work will turn over a new leaf in this matter and practice true economy, by making quality the first consideration of their purchase of boots and shoes. At the popular Boot and Shoe House of L. L. Ferriss you can get prime, sold and serviceable Boots and Shoes for as little money as you can buy cheaper grades circulors His goods are made from the choicest materials, over improved styles of Lasts, graded in size and widths to fit the human foot properly—and no shoddy nor deception there. AMBIGUMENT NOTES.

The Ferbes Dramatic Company—Litta, the Queen of Song, Thursday Night.

"Our Boarding House" is the most amusing, exciting and satirical society drama ever written, and is a budget of comicalities. On Monday evening next the Charley Forbes dramatic combination will appear in this play at the opera house. Andrew Mallon, an actor of acknowledged merit, will take the leading part, and will be supported by a first-class company of 15 artists. On Tuesday afternoon an "Uncle Tom" matinee performance will be given, and on Tuesday evening the very laughable drama of "Uncle Ass. Whitcomb" will be presented. Admission to all parts of the house, 25 cents; children, 15 cents. LITTA.

The new American queen of song, Mile

Litta, will appear in one grand concert at the opera house in this city on Thursday evening, August 28th, under the management of Mr. Frank Haines, on which occasion she will appear in her great specialty, the "Mad Scene," from the opera of Lucia de Lammermoor, in full opera costume. To see her in this act is alone worth the price of admission. She will be assisted by Prof. Beuter and a number of the best vocalists of this city. and fashiohable audience, is a foregone conclusion. Over 275 reserved seat tickets have already been sold. Those who wish to attend this concert should secure be packed. The Telephone Exchange.

Second only to the six story merchant mill soon to be erected by D. S. More than the requisite number | present stationed in Texas. of subscribers, (20), at $48 a year, has been obtained and the application for apparatus was sent to the company to-day. The general superintendent of the company, Mr. F. G. Beach, has been in the city for the past few days interviewing the mayor and our leading business men and has presented the advantages of the exchange so plainly that they have promised him substantial aid in the undertaking. The advantages of this telephone exchange are so numerous and important that it would be impossible at this time to the water works, the different hose housconnect with the exchange which will be post office block, and will be in charge of an intelligent operator, who will be on

If a fire breaks out in the vicinity of the Mound and a dwelling in that neighborhood is connected with the exchange, all the party has to do is to call the operator by means of an electric signal. The operator immediately responds to the call, and on learning what is wanted he instantly connects that wire with the hose house wire, and the alarm is given in less than a minute. It is the best fire alarm signal ever invented, and is in satisfactory operation in many large cities, east and west. STILL UNHAPPY.

Twelve Greenbackers Meet in "Mass" Convention this Afternoon and Growt as Usual.

The Greenback party of Macon county met in mass convention at the courphouse this afternoon, and after drumming up all those unhappy indviduals whose tempers cannot be sweetened even by the magnificent crops and the steadily increasing prosperity of the country, twelve men got together to resolve that resumption is a failure, and thirty bushels of wheat to the acre a delusion. Colonel Taylor was there, and so was Samuel Shelly, Fred Aholiz, W. T. Beadles, C. W. Merris

The business on hand seemed to engross the attention of all, present to such an extent that no organization had been effected up to 2 o'clock, the entire time being taken up by carnest caucussing. Our reporter could only learn this one thing - that the delegates are a unit against fusion with any other party, preferring to stand on their own slippery foundation.
